UK Agent & Counsellor Training now free of charge:

Become a UK agent or counsellor

The British Council is delighted to launch the UK agent and counsellor training and engagement hub.

By successfully completing the free training, agents and counsellors will be certified and listed on the database. The engagement hub will provide a one-stop-shop for agents and schools counsellors to engage with the UK as a study destination. Members can access communications toolkits to support their engagement with prospective students, events, webinars, announcements and updates from the UK government and UK sector bodies.

Through the engagement hub, British Council and UK education stakeholders can continually communicate with counsellors from all over the world around the latest opportunities and challenges affecting the UK education and how we support prospective international students.
