Newcastle University London offers you the opportunity to study at a world-leading university with an excellent reputation for research-led teaching and graduate employability. Study at a Russell Group university in a city that offers you the perfect base to develop your professional network.

Newcastle University London is a partnership between Newcastle University and INTO - the global education partner. The launch of the London campus enables us to offer Newcastle University degrees in addition to our university preparation courses.

In London you can choose from a range of undergraduate and postgraduate degrees that reflect the strengths of the triple-accredited Newcastle University Business School delivered in one of the world's most important financial centres. Building on our well-established connections with business and industry, you will benefit from studying in an internationally diverse environment. You will gain from regular contributions by thought leaders, alumni and leading professionals through masterclasses, internships and employer events.

“Newcastle University is a world-leading civic university with a proud tradition, committed to world-class academic excellence – but excellence with a purpose. The exciting development of our new London campus will deliver top-quality opportunities with an international focus, and will provide students and staff with increased links to facilities and national and international businesses based in London. I look forward to welcoming you here.”

About the University

Newcastle University is world leading and is ranked in the top 1% of universities in the world. Our reputation for academic excellence, high graduate employability and student experience attracts students from all over the world. Our new London campus offers you the opportunity to benefit from a world-class business education in the heart of London's financial district.

History and heritage

Over its 180-year history, Newcastle University has grown into an internationally recognised university with campuses in Singapore and Malaysia as well as the new campus in central London.

Research-informed teaching

Newcastle University is committed to excellence with a purpose. The University seeks to provide you with an 'education for life' at the same time as pursuing research that finds solutions to some of the most pressing challenges facing global society. This means giving you the skills and knowledge you need to achieve success in all walks of life, whatever you choose to do. The University's reputation is based on both the quality of its academic work and its research approach, which engages communities, organisations, business and industry.

The new London campus provides degree-level teaching delivered by academic staff actively engaged in research and who have a passion for their subject areas, resulting in innovative and engaging teaching. The campus is also the London research hub for academic staff from Newcastle University.

A global university

Newcastle University is a university with a global outlook, whose graduates meet the increasing demand for highly skilled, forward-thinking graduates needed to work in diversifying and expanding economies around the world. The University already has well-established programmes and partnerships in Malaysia, Singapore, China, Brazil, Japan, and the USA. Our London campus, based in one of the most influential cities in the world, will provide students and staff with increased links to national and international businesses based in London.

Quality assurance

All degrees offered at our London campus will meet the same rigorous quality standards as all our Newcastle University degree programmes. As for all UK universities, Newcastle University is subject to the monitoring of the standards and quality of the education we provide by the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA) and assessment of the quality of our research through the Research Excellence Framework (REF). In addition, Newcastle University Business School submits to rigorous international scrutiny and is one of an elite group of business schools worldwide that hold the triple accreditation of AACSB, AMBA and EQUIS.*

* Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, Association of MBAs and European Quality Improvement System

Global connections

Students at Newcastle University join a community of over 122,000 graduates from over 110 different countries. This alumni network is hugely valuable in offering global business connections worldwide. The London campus will host regular masterclasses, employer and alumni events.

"I'm a great believer in action learning. One of our roles is to inform. In other words we disseminate the benefits of our research but equally important is the application of those ideas. We teach students how to apply those ideas in reality."

Professor John Wilson, Director of Newcastle University Business School

▲ Adam Soliman and his successful tea brand

The Careers Service helped entrepreneur Adam Soliman to launch his own brand of specialist teas after graduating with an accounting and finance degree. Sainsbury's supermarket chain now sells 'Charbrew' in 400 of its UK stores. After successfully breaking into the UK market, Adam is now setting his sights on the international market.

Careers and employability

Newcastle graduates have an excellent reputation among recruiters and the University is one of the top 20 'most targeted' UK universities by graduate employers. Throughout your studies at Newcastle University London you will benefit from our award-winning careers support. We will help you to explore different career paths, develop your employability and entrepreneurial skills and make connections with leading employers.

Careers advice

You will benefit from one-to-one and group sessions with careers advisers, including help with career planning, researching opportunities, preparing CVs, job applications and interview coaching.

The Careers Group London is a source of additional support for students.

Vacancies

Over 2,000 employers each year use the University's searchable vacancies database to advertise graduate jobs, work experience, internships and placements. A Graduate Connections database will link you with over 750 graduates who are now employed in a wide range of jobs and professions.

International students

All of our careers support is available to our students regardless of where they are from or where they aim to work. The University also has dedicated resources specifically for international students, including information on how to find a job in the UK and internationally. Where a student's visa permits it, the Careers Service will also help students to find work alongside their studies, helping students to experience British working culture and improving their English language skills.

Employer links

Newcastle University graduates have an excellent reputation amongst recruiters and the Careers Service has links with many top graduate employers based in the UK and globally who target our students. You will be able to attend careers fairs in both London and Newcastle.

Support for entrepreneurs

A dedicated team of business advisers and development officers can offer one-to-one support and advice for students wanting to explore business ideas, start or grow their own business, work self-employed or freelance.

Work-based learning

Alongside support offered by the Careers Service, students have the opportunity to include project-based assignments and case studies within their degrees at Newcastle University London. This provides valuable experience in applying knowledge to real-world challenges - and is an excellent way to form connections with employers in London. Employers actively contribute to our degree programmes, delivering lectures and participating in professional skills modules. Internships and work placements may also be available.

Modern facilities

Newcastle University London provides outstanding teaching and learning facilities in a purpose-built building on Middlesex Street near Liverpool Street Station in the City of London. The building is shared with international students preparing for degree-level study at City University London, providing an integrated and dynamic learning environment and the opportunity to meet students on other programmes.

Flexible teaching spaces

The facilities include two multipurpose lecture theatres and modern seminar rooms, which all contain interactive whiteboards. These flexible learning spaces support lectures, practical sessions, seminars, tutorials, supported private study and e-learning.

Learning Resource Centre

The on-site Learning Resource Centre offers a range of learning materials including core textbooks, DVDs, CDs and newspapers, as well as printing, copying and scanning facilities. In addition, you will have access to the University's wealth of online learning resources, including over half a million ebooks and electronic journals. The experienced and friendly Learning Resource Centre staff provide advice and training to help you make the most of resources available.

Modern IT facilities and e-resources

You will benefit from extensive modern IT facilities and free wireless internet access. Once you register on your programme you will be assigned your own Newcastle University email address and a student smartcard which will provide you with access to a range of online learning materials.

Newcastle University degree programmes use online technology to provide additional study resources through a virtual learning environment, which provides access to reading lists, course handouts, online assessment and online discussions with tutors and fellow students.

Support and wellbeing

Professionally trained staff offer confidential help and advice on everything from student finance and accommodation, to immigration and general wellbeing. The on-site Student Support team is also available to provide emotional and pastoral support for students.

About London

London is one of the most exciting and diverse cities in the world. A global financial centre, second only to New York, and home to 70 FTSE 100 listed companies, and some 400 Fortune 500 companies, London is the perfect location for business students.

Central London location

Newcastle University London campus has excellent public transport links. Liverpool Street Station is a five-minute walk from the campus and offers connections across London via the Central, Circle, Hammersmith and City and Metropolitan underground lines. Within minutes you can be at The Tower of London or St Paul's Cathedral. Oxford Street and Covent Garden are just 15 minutes away.

On your doorstep

The Newcastle University London campus is located in a vibrant part of London, known for its trendy shops and cultural scene.

Just beyond the campus are Spitalfields Market, Brick Lane and the delights of the East End. Cutting-edge fashion boutiques and independent art galleries, along with some of London's best food markets, are all on your doorstep.

Explore London

- Hundreds of museums, galleries and music venues, many with free public access.
- Access to an unparalleled array of academic resources including a wealth of world-renowned libraries, museums and research institutes.
- A top destination for shopping with Oxford Street, Covent Garden and the Westfield shopping centre easily accessible.
- A top spot for eating out with a great choice of restaurants offering cuisines that reflect the city's multi-cultural population.
- Excellent transport links make it easy to explore the city, the UK and Europe.
- One of the greenest capitals in the world, with more than 3,000 parks and open spaces.

Explore the UK

From London there are excellent rail connections through the UK. Newcastle is three hours by train from London King's Cross train station - so you can easily visit the University in a day trip. The same line will take you on to Edinburgh, and if you wish to explore further the Eurostar service from nearby St Pancras train station has a frequent service to continental Europe (Paris, Brussels and Lille).

Student life

While the main reason for coming to London is to study, in our experience involvement in non-academic activities will help you adjust to student life and allow you to develop a network of friends to make your time in the capital more enjoyable.

Students' Union

Students at Newcastle University London are members of Newcastle University Students' Union (NUSU) and it is our job to make sure that you have a great time while studying here. The Students' Union is run by students, for students and provides social activities as well as advice and support. We also represent students on their concerns and problems, meaning that you truly have a voice on all matters that affect you.

Social programme

The campus and city offer a wide range of activities and events for you to get involved in. To ensure that there is something to interest everyone, the Student Services team arrange a varied social programme.

Social events may include:

- tour of iconic London attractions
- day trip to Windsor or Brighton
- a boat cruise to Greenwich
- film night
- paintball
- international day
- cooking classes.

Sport

In London, you will never be far from a world-class sports facility. Host to the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games, the city is home to a variety of world-class sports facilities at the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, which recently reopened to the public and is only three underground stops from the campus.

State-of-the-art facilities at the Olympic Park include:

- the Copper Box Arena - get in shape in the gym, work out in group exercise classes or take part in activities in the ultra-modern sports hall
- the Lee Valley Hockey and Tennis Centre - provides two hockey pitches, four indoor tennis courts and six outdoor courts
- the Lee Valley VeloPark - world-class facilities for track cycling, road racing, BMX or mountain biking
- the London Aquatics Centre - designed for swimmers of all abilities.

International Students House

International Students House (ISH) is a unique social, cultural and recreational centre in the heart of London - the ideal place to meet and make friends. ISH welcomes students from all over the world, including local students from the UK, which helps to make it a truly multi-cultural environment.

If you choose to become a member you can enjoy a large variety of events, activities, sports and hobbies in a safe, friendly and fun environment. Most of the activities are free as part of your membership, while a small fee is charged for some.

Student support

Whatever level of support you need, our Student Services team will be there to help you every step of the way, so that you can concentrate on your studies. Whether you need information to prepare for your arrival, or help with settling in to your new surroundings, our support services will ensure that you make the most of your time with us and achieve your academic goals.

Applications

Your first point of contact is likely to be with one of our education counsellors. Always happy to help, they recognise the importance of your choices and have in-depth knowledge of the courses on offer at Newcastle University London. They will gladly answer any questions and assist you with the application process.

For further information, see page 48.

Students who are under the age of 18

Before we accept a student younger than 18 years of age, parents must sign a consent form agreeing the outlines of the Under 18 Policy. Relevant forms will be sent to parents and the student with confirmation documents. No student will be accepted without completing and returning these forms before the start of the course.

A copy of the Under 18 Policy is available on request.

Preparing for your arrival

Once an offer has been accepted, you will receive a pre-departure guide containing practical information to help you to prepare for your arrival in London and begin your course.

Airport pickup service

For international students, an airport pickup service from one of London's three international airports is available for an additional charge.

24-hour support

A member of our dedicated Student Services team will be your first point of contact for any non-academic issues. They will be on-hand at the main Welcome Desk to provide help and advice on topics such as registering with a doctor, opening a bank account, personal safety, part-time work, volunteering, and visa and immigration issues. You will also be given a 24-hour telephone number to be used in the unlikely event of an emergency.

Orientation programme

There will be a full orientation programme at the start of your course, including a tour of your new campus. A city tour is also offered to those students who are new to London.

Monitored attendance

Good attendance is key to academic success. Newcastle University London expects students to attend all academic sessions. Student attendance is monitored carefully and where attendance is not satisfactory, we have an absence procedure.

Newcastle University London has an additional obligation to report to UK Visas and Immigration any changes that may affect the terms of an international student's visa, including absence from the programme.

Multifaith provision

London is a cosmopolitan city where all the major religions of the world have places of worship. The Student Services team can provide information on places of worship close to the campus.

Ongoing English language support

If you need additional support with developing your English language skills, free, In-session English classes are available for international students enrolled on a degree programme.

Tutors and peer mentors

You will be assigned a personal tutor to support your personal and academic development. They will offer you practical advice and guidance on a range of issues including academic advice on module choices, preparing for exams and helping to signpost relevant careers and skills development provision.

MSc International Business Management

The MSc in International Business Management has been developed in response to the growing internationalisation of business and management practice. It celebrates the diversity of living and working across cultures and focuses on the skills, competencies and knowledge necessary for individuals working in today's global business environment.

Programme overview

Our MSc in International Business Management is suited to you if you are looking to study a broad business-based degree with an international focus.

Career opportunities

The programme will enable you to develop a career within business management in areas such as management consultancy, marketing or human resource management.

What will I study?

The degree consists of 130 credits of taught modules and a 50-credit dissertation. Please be aware that programme modules do change and therefore may differ for your year of entry.

The programme provides you with a broad understanding of the main areas of international business management.

You will cover core management areas including strategy, marketing, and managing organisations and people. You will gain a rich introduction to the complexity of globalisation and cultural difference.

You will also cover:

- applied skills in problem solving, decision-making, critical thinking and analysis
- direct experience of working in multi-cultural environments to analyse business issues and develop strategic approaches to address these issues.

Following the taught modules you will complete a dissertation. This will either be research-based or practice-based and is designed so that you can demonstrate the understanding and skills you have gained from the programme within the context of a detailed study of a management or business issue. You will be supported through research study skills modules and experienced research supervisors.

International Foundation

The International Foundation prepares you for direct entry to Year 1 of one of three business-related undergraduate degrees offered at Newcastle University London. There is a single pathway in Business.

What is the International Foundation?

The International Foundation combines academic study, intensive English language preparation, study skills and cultural orientation – all that is necessary for successful university study.

What is special about the programme?

- Newcastle University validated.
- A quality-assured university programme.
- A conditional offer of a place on the first year of a relevant undergraduate degree at Newcastle University London.
- Guaranteed university placement for all successful students who achieve the required grades.
- Professional support and guidance with university applications.
- Premium facilities at our modern London campus.
- High contact hours and small class sizes.
- Multiple start dates.
- The highest levels of pastoral care and support.

What if I do not meet the minimum English language requirements?

Lasting four terms, the Extended Foundation incorporates a term of intensive English language tuition at the beginning of the course, allowing you to begin your course and improve your English to a level appropriate for academic study. Examples of the combined programmes are set out in the diagram below.

If you need to study more than one term of English in order to reach the level necessary for academic study you should apply for English for University Study. Please see page 44 for course details.

How is the programme validated?

The International Foundation is validated and quality assured by Newcastle University. Successful completion leads to the award of Newcastle University International Foundation Certificate (National Qualification Framework Level 3), which is welcomed as an entry qualification at Newcastle University London subject to meeting the specified course requirements.

Key features

Assessment

Grades from the International Foundation do not count towards your final degree, but help the University determine whether you meet the specified progression grades for entry to your chosen degree.

Assessment is both formal and informal. Informally you will receive advice and feedback from your teachers. You will also be assessed by a combination of examinations at the end of each semester and coursework which may include written assignments, reports, practical exercises, group and individual research projects, presentations and problem-solving exercises.

Academic guidance

You will receive support from your tutor on personal and academic issues, including advice on your studies and career plans.

Assured progression to Newcastle University London

If you successfully complete the International Foundation and meet the specified course requirements, you are guaranteed progression onto the first year of an undergraduate degree at Newcastle University London.

See page 34 for full details of the progression grades required for entry to Newcastle University London. Please contact us for details of progression to other degrees at the University's Newcastle campus.

University scholarships

High-achieving International Foundation students who exceed the University's progression requirements and select Newcastle as their first choice university may be eligible for a scholarship that will contribute to their first year of undergraduate studies.

Module descriptions

Detailed descriptions of the core and specialist modules for the International Foundation are set out below.

English for Academic Purposes

This module is designed to help you develop your skills and confidence in academic English. Four key skill areas are covered: reading, writing, listening, and speaking, and all are developed in an integrated and task-oriented way.

The module will encourage you to take responsibility for your learning and a lot of emphasis is placed on private study, student research, student-led presentations, seminar discussions, e-learning and group work.

Introduction to Accounting

This module aims to prepare students for the world of Business and Accounting by giving them opportunities to develop knowledge and skills in accounting and the mathematics needed for these disciplines. Through a mixture of lecture delivery and small group seminar interaction, students will be guided towards understanding practical topics in the study of accounting.

Introduction to the Study of Business

This module will help you understand key features of business in the UK. You are introduced to many aspects of business in preparation for a range of business degrees. Topics covered include motivation, management and leadership, business classifications, business funding in the UK, scrutiny of corporate annual reports and accounts, how economic factors affect business, marketing, and current themes in business. You will be taught in lectures, seminars and tutorials, and will be assessed via examinations and coursework.

Maths for Business

The module covers mathematical and statistical techniques that have applications in business and in economics. The course initially reinforces algebra skills and then builds on these in the areas of equation handling and graphing techniques. Differentiation is introduced as a technique for finding the slope and turning points of a curve. You will develop skills in the area of handling, summarising and representation of data, and become familiar with probability as a concept. The concept of correlation is also introduced and developed to establish relationships between variables.

Study Skills and Project

This module is designed to help you adjust to the specific demands and expectations of UK higher education. The skills covered will include: personal and time organisation; library and information skills; using and interpreting data; team-working skills; problem-solving skills; examination and revision techniques; presentation skills; and avoiding plagiarism. You will also have workshop sessions in core ICT skills including the use of Word, Excel, PowerPoint, email, and web-based learning systems.

The International Diploma is equivalent to studying Year 1 of a UK undergraduate degree. Successful completion offers direct entry to Year 2 of one of two business-related undergraduate degrees at Newcastle University London.

EUS: English for University Study

Key features

Intensive academic preparation

The International Diploma is as academically demanding as the first year of a traditional university degree programme. Around 80% of the programme is devoted to the academic modules. You will also receive tuition in English within the context of your academic discipline.

Assessment

Grades from the International Diploma do not count towards your final degree, but help the University determine whether you meet the specified progression grades for direct entry to Year 2 of your chosen degree.

Assessment is both formal and informal. Informally, you will receive advice and feedback throughout your programme from your teachers. You will also be assessed by a combination of examinations at the end of each semester, and coursework including written assignments, reports, practical exercises, group and individual research projects, presentations, and problem-solving exercises.

Assured progression to Newcastle University London

If you successfully complete the International Diploma and meet the specified course requirements, you are guaranteed progression onto the second year of one of two undergraduate degrees at Newcastle University London.

See page 38 for full details of the progression grades required for entry to Newcastle University London. Please contact us for details of progression to other degrees at the University's Newcastle campus.

Academic guidance

You will receive support from your tutor on personal and academic issues, including advice on your studies and career plans.

"My course focuses heavily on writing essays which is a very important skill to have in order to be successful in the UK education system."

Module descriptions

Detailed descriptions of the core modules for the International Diploma are set out below.

English for Academic Purposes

This module focuses on academic writing and the development of critical reading skills as part of the preparation stage for exam and assignment writing. Techniques for the integration and synthesis of ideas of others into your own work are covered. The module uses current assignment questions from the other Diploma modules as a platform for developing the skills required. Spoken English and listening skills are developed in all classes by the extensive use of discussion tasks in pairs and group work.

Introduction to Economics

This module will provide an understanding of basic economic principles and vocabulary in order to understand the impact economic factors have upon businesses. Microeconomics focuses primarily on the actions of individual agents and how their behaviour determines prices and quantities in specific markets, exploring the principles of demand and supply, market behaviour and consumer behaviour. Macroeconomics will examine the economic environment in which businesses operate and the relation between such factors as national income, unemployment, international trade, using monetary and government policies.

Management and Organisation

This module will provide you with an introduction to the main principles of management theory and an understanding of the development of theory in organisational behaviour and its relation to management within organisations. You will learn about different organisational structures and designs, organisational cultures, and the decision-making process within an organisation. The course also addresses human resource management issues such as organisational motivation, leadership, teamwork and managing change in the workplace.

Marketing

Through this module, you will develop an understanding of the core concepts of marketing theory and an ability to apply them to case studies. Topics include market research, marketing strategy, marketing planning and the marketing mix, and looking at competition and the environment.

A key part of the module assessment involves working as part of a group to research, plan and write a strategic marketing plan for a new product idea.

Quantitative Methods

This module offers an introduction to basic statistical concepts and methods of data analysis which are commonly used by businesses to reduce uncertainty when making decisions. The module covers the different ways in which data can be collected, summarised and analysed, and how to present that information to ensure clear understanding. You will consider probability theory as well as common probability distributions and topics such as hypothesis testing, forecasting, resource allocation, market research and quality control. There is a strong practical element to this module and you will become familiar with standard statistical packages.

Study Skills and Project

This module is designed to help you develop key university-level study skills, such as selecting and critically evaluating secondary research to improve the quality of your subject module assignments. You will also work on improving your teamwork, problem-solving, and time management, as well as developing competence in core ICT skills including the use of Word, Excel, PowerPoint, email, and web-based learning systems.

A key part of the module assessment involves the research, planning and writing of a business-related research essay.

The International Graduate Diploma prepares students for entry to one of two specialist Master's degrees at Newcastle University London. There is a single pathway in Business.

Module descriptions

Detailed descriptions of the modules for the International Graduate Diploma are set out below.

Economics

The module will focus on the distinction between microeconomics and macroeconomics and the underlying basic economic problem of scarcity. You will learn about the market system, the laws of supply and demand and how this determines the prices and the quantities that are traded through the concept of elasticity. By looking at the wider economic environment, you will learn about major schools of thought on macroeconomics issues and the relationship between economic growth and factors such as national income, inflation, unemployment, and economic management through monetary and fiscal policies.

English for Academic Purposes

This module aims to develop all your English skills so you are ready for postgraduate study. The ability to write essays at this level is the most important focus and you will have guidance in all aspects of academic writing including critical reading, synthesis of sources, text-level organisation and academic written style. All classes are delivered using pair and group work and learning is achieved with the use of problem-solving enquiry tasks. Learner independence is a priority, and focused support helps develop this.

International Business Management

This module aims to develop an understanding and appreciation of the international business environment, the implications of changes in the business environment for businesses and managers, and the need to make appropriate strategic decisions.

The focus is on developing an understanding of the business context in which leaders and managers need to operate, and examining aspects of a business that need leadership and management so as to ensure business success.

International Financial Analysis

This module focuses on the use of published company accounts. The aim of the module is to develop an understanding of what the data in a company's accounts means, how to interpret that data, and how to use it to either judge the financial performance of a firm, or compare the performance of one firm with another. Students will also learn how to assess two different proposed projects or investments and recommend which one they would recommend as the best project or investment, and why.

Study Skills and Project

This module will help you develop essential postgraduate skills by enabling you to work effectively in groups, present ideas in a logical manner, manage your time, take lecture notes, conduct research and prepare and write a research dissertation in your area of interest. Through this research project you will develop your confidence, knowledge and skills in: researching and defining a research question; selecting source texts; selecting, organising and presenting information and structuring an argument; checking drafts and proofreading; and how to avoid plagiarism.

English for University Study

English for University Study focuses on academic English and the study skills you need to succeed on your pre-university academic programme or university degree.

What is English for University Study?

This is a year-round course of intensive academic English language study designed to prepare you either for entry to a further academic preparation programme or degree course at Newcastle University London.

You will develop your English language and academic study skills, as well as research skills at higher levels, and with multiple start dates and different durations of study, the course has the flexibility to cater for students with different language levels.

The course suits a range of needs, and will teach you to:

- adapt to university-style teaching
- learn the necessary research skills for university study
- improve your overall English language ability and academic presentation techniques.

What will I study?

You will initially focus on developing core English language skills, developing your knowledge and confidence in reading, writing, listening, speaking and pronunciation, grammar and vocabulary.

After developing your core skills, you will focus on skills relevant to your study, including teamwork, problem solving, critical thinking and time management.

The course comprises 20 hours of taught lessons per week plus one hour of directed private study, which will be supervised by your tutor. In order to make good progress, you are expected to do approximately 20 additional hours per week of private study outside class, which may include homework, assignments or coursework that will be submitted for assessment, as well as online learning.

Assessment

At the end of each term, your skills and language will be assessed to give a clear indication of your progress. Methods of assessment may include:

- written assignments
- presentations
- research projects
- reading, writing, listening and speaking examinations.

Course outcomes

Assuming you have met the academic entry requirements for your chosen programme, achieving the required level on the English for University Study course offers assured progression to the following courses:

- direct entry to an undergraduate or postgraduate degree at Newcastle University London
- the International Foundation, International Diploma or International Graduate Diploma programme.*

* Subject to meeting Tier 4 student visa requirements.

£250,000 worth of scholarships available

Newcastle University London is delighted to announce a range of generous scholarships for international students applying for undergraduate or postgraduate degrees, or the International Foundation, International Diploma or International Graduate Diploma programmes.

For students starting courses in 2015, we will be awarding £250,000 worth of scholarships.

If you have a strong academic record, you will have the opportunity to apply for a scholarship, which provides financial support to reduce your tuition fees. Each application is considered with great care, with scholarships awarded on their individual academic merit.

For full details of the scholarships offered by Newcastle University London, visit:
www.ncl.ac.uk/london

Important

Please note that separate terms and conditions apply to students studying on the higher education programmes offered by Newcastle University London. In accepting an offer of a place at the University, commencing or registering for a programme of study, all students accept the rules and regulations of the University. The nature of University provision is very complex and there are a variety of policies, procedures and regulations that apply. You should note that all procedures are subject to annual periodic review. Full details can be found at: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/progress/Regulations

1. Application of the Terms and Conditions

- These terms and the offer letter (together the 'Terms and Conditions') set out the contractual terms which apply between Newcastle University INTO London LLP ('Newcastle University London' or 'NUL') and students ('Students') in relation to the English language courses and/or university preparation programmes (the 'Course').
- As such, Students should ensure they read the Terms and Conditions very carefully before signing and submitting their application for admission to the NUL campus.

2. Application to the Course and Confirmation of Acceptance

- To apply for a place on a Course, Students should complete their application and submit it to the NUL Admissions Office.
- NUL may accept or reject applications in its absolute discretion. If NUL accepts the application, NUL will issue a written offer of a place on a Course to the Student (including any conditions relevant to the offer) (the 'Offer Letter') together with an acceptance form for the Student to confirm their acceptance of the offer of the place.
- In order to accept the offer, the Student must:
 - complete and return to NUL the acceptance form confirming acceptance of the offer of the place indicated in the Offer Letter;
 - pay a deposit as described in the Offer Letter which will be used towards the tuition fees due for the Course. The amount of the deposit required will be shown in the Offer Letter; and
 - pay the Uniplan Insurance premium (details of which are set out in this brochure) and submit the completed Uniplan form to NUL or provide proof of an acceptable alternative insurance cover.
- After completion of the actions listed in paragraph 2c above, the contract between the Student and NUL is formed. However, if the offer is 'conditional', the contract shall not come into force unless and until the Student meets the conditions of the Offer Letter and completes the actions listed in paragraph 2c above.

3. Tuition fees and payment

- The balance of the invoice including tuition fees payable for the Course, enrolment fee and any insurance fees (if applicable) payable must be paid to NUL no later than six weeks prior to the start date of the Course (which is stated in the Offer Letter). Details of indicative course dates are included in this brochure.
- The invoice including tuition fees, enrolment fee and insurance fees (if applicable) must be paid in full in pounds sterling by cheque, banker's draft, bank transfer, credit card or debit card.
- If bank, credit or debit card charges are incurred by NUL on such payments, where these charges have been incurred through no fault of NUL, these will be re-invoiced to the Student's account so that NUL receives the payment in full.
- Tuition fee deposits are non-refundable unless the Student is unable to meet visa entry requirements (in which case the Student will be required to provide an official visa rejection letter to NUL – further details of which are set out in section 10 below) or meet conditions of offer (details of which are set out in section 11 below).
- Any variation to standard payment terms will only be made by prior agreement in writing by the Centre Director of the NUL campus.
- The prices stated in this brochure are valid for confirmed bookings (with payment) received by NUL on or after 01 January 2015 and until further notice. Please contact NUL for further details or visit the website.

4. Other fees

- One to one tuition – Any Students who require 1:1 tuition must agree such tuition with the NUL campus in advance. English language tuition will be charged at £75 per hour and will be invoiced in advance. One to one for other subjects may be available and charges may vary. For such tuition, the student should speak to the Academic Director in the NUL campus in the first instance.

5. Overdue fees

- In cases of overdue payment of any of the fees owed by the Student, NUL reserves the right to suspend or cancel tuition and to charge interest on the outstanding balance. Interest will be charged on any outstanding fees at the rate of 2.5% above the base rate of Barclays Bank per month or part thereof from the due date (either six weeks prior to course commencement or date of receipt of visa) until payment.
- NUL reserves the right to withhold any academic results or certificates, if fees are still owed by the Student at the end of their Course.
- Fees remain payable if a 'notice of withdrawal' has not been given in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.

6. Changes to Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies ("CAS")

- NUL will issue a CAS, no more than six months before the Student's first Course start date provided that:
 - the Student's offer is unconditional; and
 - the Student has paid their deposit or full fees as set out in the Offer Letter.
- Before issuing the CAS, NUL will confirm with the Student that the details to be included in the CAS are correct. Once the Student has confirmed that the details are correct, NUL will submit the details to the Home Office.
- If the Student requests any changes to the information on the CAS (other than an update to the 'Fees paid to date' information after making further payments) after NUL has submitted the details to the Home Office and a new CAS is required, the Student will be charged for each request at the then prevailing rate. At the time of going to print the cost is £14 but is subject to review by the Home Office.

7. Cancellation charges

- Subject to paragraphs 8 and 9 below, if the Student wishes to cancel their place on the Course prior to the Course commencing, then, unless such cancellation is due to visa refusals, and/or academic and/or English Language conditions on the Student's Offer Letter not being met, the following charges apply:

Academic programmes and English for University Study Courses

Tuition fee cancellation charges:

Four weeks or more before commencement: cancellation fee of £500
 Less than four weeks before commencement: cancellation fee of £1000
 Cancellation after course commencement: cancellation fee of one term's full fees (excluding Pre-sessional, where full fees apply)

Accommodation fee cancellation charges:

Four weeks or more before commencement: cancellation fee of £500
 Less than four weeks before commencement: cancellation fee of £1000

- Cancellations must be made in writing to the NUL Admissions Office, One Gloucester Place, Brighton, BN1 4AA. Cancellations will become valid on the day the written notice is received by NUL.
- Cancellation charges will be deducted from the deposit and/or tuition fees paid by the Student or, if no deposit and/or tuition fees have been paid by the Student, NUL will invoice the Student for the cancellation charges. Payment shall be due within 30 days of the date of such invoice.
- Cancellation of a Course prior to the start date of the course includes cancellation of any Uniplan Insurance policy. If you cancel your Uniplan Insurance policy either within the 14 day cooling off, or after this period, a charge will be made based on the number of days you have had cover less a cancellation fee of £25.00, unless you have travelled or a claim or an incident likely to give rise to a claim has occurred, in which case no refund will be due. Please note once a student has commenced their Course then no cancellation of the insurance cover is possible and there is no refund due for the Uniplan premium.

8. Leaving a Course early

- If a Student wishes to withdraw from their Course, they must notify the NUL campus in writing as described above in the section 'Cancellation charges'. Once a student has arrived in the UK and commenced their course in the centre, there will be no refund of fees.
- Accommodation cancellation charges will apply as outlined at paragraph 21 below.

9. Contracts made by distance communication

- If NUL has made its offer for a place on the Course and the offer has been accepted by the Student solely by means of distance communication (i.e. if up to the point when the contract is concluded there has been no face-to-face contact between the Student and NUL or NUL's representative) then the contract between us is a 'Distance Contract'.
- Students are entitled to cancel a Distance Contract at any time up to the earlier of:
 - 7 days from the date when the Distance Contract is concluded; or
 - the date on which the Student starts the Course.
- In order to cancel the Distance Contract, the Student must inform NUL in writing at the NUL Admissions Office, One Gloucester Place, Brighton, East Sussex, BN1 4AA within the time periods set out in paragraph (b) above.
- If any payment has been made by the Student to NUL under these Terms and Conditions prior to the date of cancellation then a full refund will be provided by NUL using the same payment type as soon as possible but, in any event, within 30 days of receipt of the Student's notification of cancellation.

10. Cancellation or deferral because of Visa refusal/Visa delays

- Students are entitled (provided such refusal/delay is not the result of any fraudulent activity) to cancel or defer a Course due to refusal or non-receipt of a necessary visa providing that the Student informs the NUL Admissions Office in writing and sends evidence to NUL of the visa refusal or that the Student advises NUL that they have not yet received the relevant visa from the Embassy as early as possible and in any event no later than two weeks after the Student's proposed Course start date (or one week for English for University Study courses).
- Cancellation charges (except for Uniplan Insurance cancellation fees which will apply as outlined above in paragraph 7d) will not be incurred in the circumstances described in paragraph (a) above provided that the Student complies with the notice requirements set out and any deposit and/or tuition fees already paid will be refunded accordingly. Failure to provide the relevant information in the timescales set out in paragraph (a) will result in normal cancellation charges applying as set out in paragraph 7 and no fees already paid will be refunded.
- If the visa refusal states that the visa has been refused due to any type of fraudulent activity by (or with the approval of) the Student then, notwithstanding paragraph 10b, the Student shall be liable for full deposit which will become non-refundable and the total of all claims, damages, losses (including consequential and indirect losses) and expenses incurred as a result of such fraud and the need to comply with any associated internal or external investigation.

11. Cancellation because conditions of offer are not met

- If NUL's offer to the Student is conditional upon the Student meeting the requirements set out in the Offer Letter, NUL reserves the right to withdraw its offer to the Student if the requirements of the Offer Letter are not met.
- If a Student does not meet the conditions of the Offer Letter (Academic or English language), provided that the Student informs NUL in writing and sends evidence that the conditions have not been met as early as possible but at least four weeks before the Course start date, no cancellation charges will be payable by the Student to NUL. This information must arrive at the NUL Admissions Office in the UK no later than four weeks before the Course start date or the day after the Student's exam results are published (if this falls after the four week cut off point). If NUL receives the relevant information (including evidence of the date of publication of the results if this falls after the four week cut off point) within the timelines outlined above, any deposits/fees already paid (minus the Uniplan Insurance cancellation fees as outlined above in paragraph 7d) will be refunded by NUL to the Student. Failure to do this will result in normal cancellation charges applying (as set out above) and no fees will be refunded.

12. Deferrals

- A Student may defer the start of a Course if the Student has been prevented by external events from starting the Course, up to a maximum of two occasions. An external event includes (without limitation) serious illness or injury of the Student or of a close member of the Student's family.
- Students must ensure that any request to defer is accompanied by a full explanation of the reasons for the request, is presented in writing and reaches the NUL Admissions Office in the UK at least six weeks before the Course start date. If NUL receives the request after this date, normal cancellation charges will apply (see the 'Cancellation charges' section above). The request should also include details of the Student's preferred new start date for the Course.
- All deferrals are subject to the availability of the requested chosen new Course start date at the time NUL receives the Student's request to defer.

- Any deferral requests in excess of the two occasions referred to above will be considered by the NUL Admissions Office on a case-by-case basis and acceptance of a deferral request will be at the NUL Admissions Office's sole discretion.
- On the basis that a new CAS will need to be issued if a request to defer is successful, the Student will be charged the fee in respect of the new CAS (as described in paragraph 6c above).
- Student accommodation will need to be re-booked and is subject to availability.
- If the reason for deferral is due to visa refusal, the provisions set out under section 10 above shall apply.

13. Academic criteria and attendance

- Students are accepted onto the Course on the strict understanding that progression through the Course and successful completion of the Course are conditional upon satisfactory attendance and successful attainment results of specified progression grades.
- Students are accepted onto the Course on the strict understanding that they attend all classes. By signing the application form, the Student accepts that if they fail to attend classes without good reason, or without the permission of the Programme Manager for the Course or a member of the Centre Senior Management Team, they may be deemed to have withdrawn or be required to leave the Course. In the case of students studying on a Tier 4 visa, the Centre may also report the situation to the Home Office.
- During the Course induction all Students will be made aware of the criteria for successful completion of the Course. The assessment of student performance may take into consideration coursework, internal centre examination results, attendance, effort in class and homework.
- Students who do not meet the academic and/or any other attainment criteria for successful completion will not be allowed to proceed with their intended study plan. In such cases, Students will be offered advice on suitable alternative study options.
- Students who do not meet the attainment criteria for progression from an English language programme, or who are identified at being at serious risk of not meeting the attainment criteria for progression from an English language programme, to their intended Course of study (including Extended courses) will be offered advice on alternative study plans which may include further study on the English language Course. In some cases, an alternative study plan may involve additional time and expenditure with regard to tuition and accommodation fees.

14. English language admissions criteria

- Offers are made to Students for both English language and academic Courses on the basis of the certification provided by the Students that they meet the admissions criteria. If, however, the results from the tests and assessment procedures on arrival provide clear evidence that a Student's actual level of English language proficiency is significantly lower than claimed and lower than that required for their designated Course or for visa entry purposes, then the Student will be formally advised of the results and of their options.
- Where 14a applies, Students will not be allowed to proceed with their original Course and will be advised as to possible alternatives. Such alternatives may include:
 - an alternative study plan which may involve additional time and expenditure up to £1,000 with regard to tuition and further accommodation fees; or
 - if the English Language levels below the level for visa entry purposes then the Student will have to return home.

15. Behaviour, welfare and attendance

- By signing the application form, the Student consents to NUL requesting and receiving any relevant information from any University school, service or centre concerning the Student's behaviour, welfare and attendance, and to allow the efficient operation of the Centre.
- If the Student has welfare and/or pastoral problems or concerns, the Student should in the first instance refer to the NUL Student Handbook or contact the Head of Student Services or the Student Services team.
- By signing the application form the Student agrees to adhere to the NUL campus Code of Practice.

16. Class times and sizes

- For all Courses, classes will normally be held Monday to Friday between the hours of 08:00 and 19:00 but NUL reserves the right to hold classes outside of these times.
- The maximum class size is normally 20 students for English for University Study and English language modules on academic Courses. However, where appropriate, classes may be combined for university style lectures.
- Lessons will take place in the form of classes, seminars, workshops and lectures. Academic subject class sizes will vary depending on the learning format (e.g. lecture, seminar, lab practicals).
- Examinations may be held in the evening, on weekends and public holidays, and at venues outside of the main centre.

17. Holidays

- No regular classes will take place at NUL on recognised UK public holidays
- No refunds will be made for classes not taking place on these dates.
- On occasion examinations may be held on these dates. Term dates relevant to individual Courses are published in this brochure and no classes will take place outside these dates.

18. Arrivals

- Students must arrive in the UK on the Saturday or Sunday before the Course start date and register and enrol at the Centre on the published start date.
- Late arrivals – NUL expects all Students to arrive and start their Course on the scheduled start date. However, NUL recognises that Students are sometimes delayed for unavoidable reasons (these would include, for example, cancellation of, or delays to, flights or other transport). In exceptional cases, the NUL campus will allow Students to arrive up to two weeks after the published start date for academic Courses and up to one week late on English language Courses. Unavoidable late arrivals must be approved in advance by the Head of Admissions of NUL as soon as the Student becomes aware that he or she will not arrive in time for the scheduled start date.
- If, due to late arrival, a new CAS has to be issued, there will be a charge for the issuing of the new CAS (as set out in paragraph 6c above).
- No discount or refund of fees will be given for late arrivals.

19. Accommodation

- At the time of application to the Course, Students are invited to select their preferred accommodation. NUL aims to provide the accommodation as requested but, if this is not available, NUL reserves the right to provide an alternative type of accommodation. This will be charged at the published rate for such accommodation as set out on the fees page within this brochure.

- b. Accommodation is allocated as per the instructions on the application form and upon receipt of the signed copy of the student's acceptance form and payment of the appropriate accommodation deposit (as evidenced by the Student's invoice). Under 18s are required to stay in NUL accommodation unless full details have been provided of alternative living arrangements with a named adult over the age of 21.
- c. Students will be sent a copy of the accommodation terms and conditions with their offer letter and are required to agree to them when returning the acceptance form.
- d. The accommodation deposit is described in the Offer Letter. Accommodation is guaranteed once the deposit has been paid, the student has returned a ticked and signed Acceptance Form, and the Student has received confirmation that the type of room they have requested is available.
- e. NUL accommodation is only available to Students who are registered on full-time NUL Courses.
- f. Accommodation is not available to family members of Students (unless they are also registered on full-time Courses at NUL).
- g. NUL advises Students to insure their personal belongings. NUL shall have no liability for any loss, theft and/or damage to Students' personal belongings. NUL can provide details of insurance policies on request.
- h. Where a Course spans a holiday period accommodation fees will still be charged for those periods.
- i. The damage and sundry expenses deposit is to cover outstanding damages and repairs once the Student has vacated the property and/or any fines or damage charges incurred during the study period remaining unpaid at the time of the Student's departure.
- j. Breakages – Students are responsible for payment of any damage caused by them to property owned or occupied by the University (where applicable) or the NUL campus. Students in residential accommodation may be required to sign an inventory on arrival and departure. The NUL campus reserves the right to recover costs for damage or exceptional cleaning from Students. Any damage which requires repairs and/or exceptional cleaning which occurs whilst the Student is living in the property or is required following the Student's departure will be charged to the Student separately at the going rate. Any damage discovered during the student's stay will be invoiced at that time and payment will be due immediately. Charges for damage discovered after departure will be deducted from the deposit payable by the Student as set out in paragraph 19i above. If the amount due is in excess of the deposit paid by the Student, NUL will invoice the Student for the excess amount. The Student shall pay any such amounts to NUL within 30 days of the date of the invoice.

20. Accommodation fees

- a. All accommodation fees for the entire duration of the accommodation booked must be paid in full in pounds sterling by cheque, banker's draft, bank transfer, credit or debit card at least six weeks prior to the start date of the Course. If bank, credit or debit card charges are incurred by NUL on such payments, where these charges have been incurred through no fault of NUL, these will be re-invoiced to the Student's account so that NUL receives the payment in full.

21. Accommodation changes or cancellation when a Student has arrived and moved into their Accommodation

- a. Residential/homestay accommodation – In all cases except visa refusals, Students who wish to cancel their accommodation booking will be subject to the cancellation fees as set out in the copy of the accommodation terms and conditions they will have received with their Offer Letter.
- b. Students are bound by the terms and conditions of their accommodation contract.
- c. Full accommodation charges will apply during any notice period as outlined in the accommodation contract.
- d. No change to the type of accommodation arrangements will be made without the written permission of the Head of Student Services or the Centre Director. This permission will only be given in exceptional circumstances. If a Student makes a change to his/her accommodation arrangements or leaves accommodation provided by NUL without the prior written consent of the Centre Director, the Student shall remain liable for the full accommodation payments invoiced or reserved at the time of confirmation.
- e. A Student under the age of 18 may only move to agreed alternative private accommodation where the Student's parent or guardian have certified to NUL that this is the case and that the provision of accommodation by NUL is no longer required. For the avoidance of doubt the Student shall remain liable for the full accommodation payments invoiced or reserved at the time of confirmation in respect of the vacated property.
- f. Residential accommodation may not be available over the two week Christmas period to Students who are under 18 years old. The NUL campus can assist with alternative arrangements which may incur an additional charge.

22. Airport pickups

- a. Airport pickups may be booked as specified earlier in this brochure. The airport pickup will be for the passenger named on the application form only or for named Students if Students agree in advance (and notify NUL) that they wish to share an airport pickup.
- b. Additional family members or chaperones accompanying the named passenger will be charged additional fees.
- c. The first 30 minutes of waiting time is included in the fee as specified in this brochure. Additional fees may apply for waiting periods longer than 30 minutes.
- d. Fees will only be refunded for 'missed pickups' if the Student informs NUL, by telephoning the NUL emergency telephone number (as publicised in the pre-departure guide), that their pickup will not be required or that they will be delayed before they leave the departure airport, or if they have arrived at their destination airport and the transfer is a no-show, they telephone the NUL emergency telephone number (as publicised in the pre-departure guide), that their transfer is a no-show before they leave the arrival airport.
- e. Airport transfer fees must be paid for at least 6 weeks prior to the course start date.
- f. Airport pickups are compulsory for students under 18, unless parents provide NUL with evidence that they have made alternative arrangements for the collection of their child from the UK entry airport. A similar compulsory delivery of students under 18 to their departure airport applies.

23. Travel to the NUL campus

- a. NUL expects Students to assist NUL with its Green Travel Plan, as may be reasonably required.
- b. Students may not bring cars to campus unless otherwise agreed in advance by NUL. Please contact NUL for further details of our Green Travel Plan.

24. Record keeping duties under TIER 4 Immigration rules (PBS)

- a. NUL is required to keep a copy of Students' passport, identity card for foreign nationals or United Kingdom immigration status document and Students' UK contact details.
- b. Under the TIER 4 Immigration rules (PBS) the sponsor licence holder will report to the Home Office in the following circumstances:
 - i. if the Student fails to enrol on the Course within the enrolment period;

- ii. if the sponsor licence holder stops being the Student's immigration sponsor for any other reason, for example, if the Student is withdrawn or moves into an immigration category that does not need an approved education provider;
- iii. if there are any significant changes in the Student's circumstances, for example, if the length of a course of study becomes shorter; or
- iv. if NUL has any suspicions that the Student is breaking any conditions attached to their permission.

25. Medical treatment and accident insurance

- a. Acceptance by the Student (or by his/her parent or legal guardian if the Student is under 18), of a place to study at the NUL campus indicates that the Student (or parent/legal guardian if the Student is under 18):
 - i. gives permission for the administration of first aid and appropriate nonprescription medication to the Student if required; and
 - ii. if the Student is under 18, for NUL to recommend that the Student seeks medical, dental or optical treatment when required.
- b. All Students must maintain a valid and comprehensive medical and accident insurance policy for the duration of their stay. Students unable to provide evidence of adequate cover at the time of their application are required to take up the Uniplan Insurance cover as a condition of enrolment.

26. Students who are under 18

- a. NUL strongly recommends that parents appoint a UK based guardian for international Students under 18 years of age.
- b. If parents are making their own arrangements for either guardianship services or a friend or family member in the UK to act as guardian to the Student, then evidence of these guardianship arrangements and contact details thereof must be supplied at time of confirmation.
- c. Parents of Students under 18 must sign a consent form authorising nominated NUL staff to act (on behalf of the parent) in the case of an emergency. They must also complete a medical information form. The forms will be included with the NUL offer documents and must be completed and returned to NUL at the confirmation stage. Confirmation documents will not be issued unless these forms are returned. Failure to return these forms could result in a Certificate of Acceptance for Studies not being issued.
- d. In the case of Students under 18, any reference in these Terms and Conditions to liability of Students shall also infer liability on the parents or guardian of the Student and such liability is joint and several.

27. Student information

- a. Students agree that copies of their regular reports on their academic progress and performance can be supplied to parents, sponsors or agents without notification, by completing the student record section of the application form.
- b. Students agree that if NUL has serious concerns about their welfare, NUL can contact their parents or family members without notification. Consent is hereby given by the Student to the above until formally withdrawn in writing.
- c. Students and, if the Student is under 18, the Student's parents/guardians/sponsors hereby consent that the Student's records and achievements, images and sound may be used for promotional purposes, by completing the student record section of the application form.
- d. NUL is obliged to report visa status, attendance records and UK contact details to relevant UK government bodies and will do so in accordance with its legal obligations under relevant legislation (including under the Data Protection Act 1998).
- e. NUL may disclose information about the Student for the purposes of (without limitation):
 - i. the administration of justice;
 - ii. the exercise of any functions of either House of Parliament;
 - iii. the exercise of any functions conferred on any person by or under any enactment;
 - iv. the exercise of any functions of the Crown, a Minister of the Crown or a government department; and/or
 - v. the exercise of any other functions of a public nature exercised in the public interest by any person i.e. necessary for legitimate purposes and justified by the Data Protection Act.
- f. NUL will process personal information provided to it by Students in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and any other applicable data protection legislation. For further information about how NUL handles and uses personal data please see NUL's Privacy Policy which can be viewed at www.intohigher.com/uk/en-gb/footer/legal-and-privacy.aspx.
- g. NUL will only use the personal information provided to it by Students in order to provide and administer the course. Please note that personal data may be shared between NUL and the university partner where applicable, as necessary in order to provide and administer the course. Any personal data shared is in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and with any other applicable data protection legislation. Students acknowledge and agree that by providing their personal details, NUL may also pass their personal data to external agencies or other selected third parties for the purposes of seeking participation in student surveys, undertaking academic audits or ensuring compliance with NUL's regulatory responsibilities.

28. Liability

- a. Subject to the following, NUL (including its staff and/or representatives) shall have no liability to the Student for any loss, damage, costs or expenses arising under or in connection with these Terms and Conditions except where such loss or damage is directly caused by NUL (or its staff or representatives).
- b. Where such loss or damage is directly caused by NUL (or its staff or representatives), NUL's liability shall, subject to the following, be limited to 150% of all fees paid or payable by the Student to NUL.
- c. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall exclude or restrict NUL's liability for death or personal injury resulting from its negligence or fraudulent misrepresentation or in any other circumstances where liability may not be so limited under any applicable law.
- d. NUL shall have no liability for failure or delay to supply the Course and/or any service contemplated by these Terms and Conditions due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control.

29. Disclaimer

- a. This brochure is prepared in advance of the academic year to which it relates. The information is correct at the time of going to press and the Courses and services described herein are those which NUL is planning to offer. However, NUL reserves the right, to amend, add or remove any, Course and/or services set out in this brochure and/or the timetable, delivery, content syllabus and assessment of such Courses. The University (where applicable) also reserves the right to amend the regulations governing those Courses without prior notice. NUL therefore strongly recommends that immediately prior to making any application to NUL or accepting any offer from NUL, Students should refer to the most up-to-date version of the Course descriptions and specifications and the regulations on the NUL website.
- b. NUL also reserves the right to make variations to the contents and methods of delivery of the Courses and services, to discontinue, Courses and services, and to combine and merge Courses, if such action is reasonably considered to be necessary by NUL.

- c. Applicants to NUL Courses will be notified as soon as practicable of any material changes likely to have a bearing on their application, such as cancellation of, or major modification to Courses offered, changes to accommodation provision or fees and charges to be levied by the university partner where applicable.
- d. NUL, in marketing its Courses, aims to comply with the British Code of Advertising Practice issued by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- e. Applications to universities for undergraduate or postgraduate courses are governed solely by the applicable terms and conditions of that university, and not by these Terms and Conditions.

30. Equal opportunities

- a. NUL operates an equal opportunities admissions policy. It aims to ensure that no applicant will receive less favourable treatment on the grounds of age, sex, marital status, race, colour, nationality, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, or political or religious belief.
- b. NUL welcomes applications from candidates with disabilities.

31. Entire agreement

- a. These Terms and Conditions and the Offer Letter constitute the entire agreement between NUL and the Student for the provision of English language Courses and/or academic Courses and any other NUL Course.
- b. These Terms and Conditions supersede any promises, representations, warranties – whether written or oral – made by or on behalf of one party to the other.

32. Changes to these Terms and Conditions

- a. NUL reserves the right to vary these Terms and Conditions without the consent of the Student at any time prior to entering into a contract with the Student. In such circumstances, NUL will provide a revised set of Terms and Conditions.

33. Transfer of these Terms and Conditions

- a. NUL may assign, transfer, or sub-contract in whole or in part some or all of the benefit and/or burden of these Terms and Conditions.

34. Severance

- a. If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of these Terms and Conditions (or part of any provision) are invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of these Terms and Conditions shall not be affected.

35. Governing law and jurisdiction

- a. The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and any dispute (including non-contractual disputes) arising out of or in connection with the subject matter or formation of these Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.
- b. The English Courts will have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes (including any non-contractual disputes), which may arise out of or in connection with these Terms and Conditions. Students and NUL agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

36. Other fees

- a. Textbooks – Textbooks and/or appropriate Course materials will be supplied to Students on enrolment for International Foundation, Graduate Diploma, English for University Study or Pre-session English Courses. Students will be invoiced for the textbooks and/or appropriate Course materials immediately following receipt by NUL of the Student's acceptance of the offer of a place on the Course and such invoice is payable at least six weeks before the start date of the Course. The approximate cost of textbooks and/or appropriate Course materials will be £190 per academic Course (3 term), £250 per academic course (4 term) and £70 per term for the English for University Study.

37. University placement and progression

- a. Students who pass the NUL Foundation but do not meet the criteria for progression onto further study at Newcastle University London may, at NUL's sole discretion receive a refund of all tuition fees paid if, having complied with NUL staff advice with regard to their university application, they have not been offered a place at a UK university on a course appropriate to their qualification.
- b. Students who successfully complete the NUL Foundation, Diploma or Graduate Diploma and who meet the individual entry requirements of Newcastle University London for their chosen degree will be permitted to progress onto their course provided they have received a conditional offer and met the terms of that offer and any other University entry requirements.

38. Behaviour, welfare and attendance

- a. By signing the application form the Student agrees to adhere to Newcastle University London's Disciplinary and Attendance Policy, which requires attendance of at least 95%. The student should refer to the Disciplinary and Attendance Policy provided at induction. Students will be registered with Newcastle University and will therefore be required to abide by the rules and regulations of Newcastle University.

39. Damage and sundry expenses deposit

- a. All Students will be required to pay a damage and sundry expenses deposit of £500 which will be invoiced at the time of booking their course and shall be payable at least six weeks prior to the start date of the Course. Such deposit is refundable at the end of the Course minus any costs not already paid in Centre for any damages, exceptional cleaning or fines which have been incurred either to the residential/homestay accommodation or the premises and/or facilities which are discovered during occupancy or once an inspection has taken place after the Student's departure. The NUL campus will repay any monies owing within 60 days of the Student's final Course end date.

Uniplan insurance

Uniplan Insurance is a comprehensive insurance policy prepared especially for international students in the UK to cover loss of personal possessions as well as travel, health and medical claims. Full travel, health and medical insurance is mandatory for all international students studying any course at Newcastle University London and for European students studying a university preparation or English language course, and Uniplan Insurance will automatically be added to your course fees unless you show that suitable alternative cover has been provided. We strongly recommend however that all students have insurance. Please contact newcastlelondon@ncl.ac.uk for further information about suitable insurance packages. Newcastle University London is an appointed representative of Endsleigh Insurance Services Ltd which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. This can be checked on the Financial Services Register by visiting its website at: www.fca.org.uk/register
