About LearnEnglish Pathways

LearnEnglish Pathways is a series of 8 self-study modules for adult learners of English organised across the B1 to C1 levels of the CEFR. Each course is 30 to 40 hours long and aims to develop learners' language through a variety of flash-based interactive online lessons. These courses are moderated meaning that trainers can interact with and support course participants throughout.

Themes of LearnEnglish Pathways

LearnEnglish Pathways syllabus is built around key areas of adult life as follows:

Each of the eight levels that make up LearnEnglish Pathways is divided into six themed units, where language functions, vocabulary, grammatical structures and ways of interacting are linked to the subject of each unit.

Description of the methodology, instructional design and program structure

LearnEnglish Pathways is built on the principles of constructivism pedagogy on which the Moodle learning platform is built. LearnEnglish Pathways conceives language learning as a series of successive approximations towards the goals of study, and through mediated interactions with others (tutors and students), increasing levels and depths of knowledge are achieved.

LearnEnglish Pathways is based on British Council methodology, which includes elements of the communicative approach, and functional and theme-based learning. Each course consists of six units relevant to adults working in a wide variety of roles and contexts.

Structure

Each unit is divided into five sections, and each section contains between five and 10 interactive activities. The following diagram shows the structure of a typical course.

Description of the program

LearnEnglish Pathways provides a virtual English learning experience that will take learners from level A0 to B2 on the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). Course participants engage with online activities and resources (30-40 hours).

Delivering LearnEnglish Pathways

Using the British Council's online learning system, Moodle.

Moodle is the name of a web platform specifically designed to deliver courseware. Learners are provided with individual accounts. The system remembers where they are in the materials and allows students to check progress and scores, which are automatically recorded in the system's gradebook. Teachers/administrators are also able to check their progress.
